

CWA Canada Associate Members Steering Committee

WHO ARE WE?

The Steering Committee is made up of current students and young workers (age 29 and under) CWA Canada associate members that actively devote their time to make a difference in the lives of young media workers. We participate in monthly Steering Committee conference calls to plan advocacy campaigns, organize events, and more.

WHAT DO WE DO?

Together during monthly conference call meetings, we will:

- Identify and then take action on issues that affect student journalists
- Plan campaigns to influence the broader union and it's 6,000+ members
- Provide direction to the program: what services to offer, what issues to act on,
- Give political direction to the program, and
- Effect policy changes in the larger CWA Canada structure to better the work environment of new and precarious media workers.

Youth Representation Matters in Your Media Union

WHY SHOULD YOU JOIN?

Benefits of joining the Steering Committee include:

- Networking with like-minded individuals in your field
- Adding to your resume
- Learning about the labour movement and the roles of unions in the Canadian media, and
- Becoming an informed member of the next generation of media workers.

GET INVOLVED

Join the CWA Canada associate members Steering Committee by applying online or contacting kaylaperry@cwa-scacanada.ca for more information.

CONTACT FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Kayla Perry, CWA Canada Associate Membership Coordinator
kperry@cwa-scacanada.ca | 416-566-1264 | 1-800-465-4149 x 223